WEEKLY PROGRESS TREND (All Initiatives)

WEEKLY EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Having the support of Tachana’s coach is a sign that she is well guided by a professional who is committed to her comprehensive training, especially since she is living in Trinidad and Tobago; that is why I consider it an achievement to have drafted a document to secure support from the various organizations within the Olympic structure. We still have a meeting pending with the other athlete in Trinidad and Tobago, Xavi Wadilie, and we will continue to follow up. That said, Tachana’s proposal is currently with the SOC Secretary General, so we are awaiting a response before we can send it to Panam Sports and Olympic Solidarity. Prior to this project, there was no Methodology Department at the SOC, so we are establishing this professional unit. Administrative staff and members of the Executive
