KEY ACTIVITIES THIS WEEK

DATE	ACTIVITY	STATUS
Aug 31	At the beginning of the week, I reviewed the local sport methodology officer's progress from the previous reporting period and supported the organization of her priorities for the week. This included reviewing her qualification-pathway research for Beach Volleyball and Cycling, CAC Games follow-up, federation-folder development, OVEP preparation and continued support for participants in the Panam Sports Coaching Course. The review confirmed progress in updating the Chess and Netball federation folders, including high-performance athlete information and the Netball Association's National Team Selection Criteria. It also identified Volleyball and Cycling as priority federations for continued follow-up. The proposed work includes supporting the federations with their athlete, coach and official development pathways; high-performance athlete databases; federation databases; operational calendars; communication agreements; and selection and appeals criteria. The local sport methodologist continued coordinating possible meetings with Volleyball and Cycling in relation to their documentation and upcoming international activities. Volleyball subsequently confirmed that it would not participate in the Pan American Cup; however, its executive had discussed meeting with the methodology team to continue work on the federation documents, with a date expected to be confirmed, most likely during the week of September 20. Follow-up with Cycling ahead of its upcoming competition also remains active. Targeted technical support was also initiated for Athletics after Coach Godwin Dorsette contacted me requesting assistance with planning for his athletes for the 2026–2027 season. I responded to the request and we scheduled a working meeting for Monday, September 7, at 7:00 p.m. to begin reviewing and developing the annual training plans.	In Progress
Sep 1	Began developing a Dominica-focused athlete interview package to support schools interested in requesting an educational visit from the Dominica Olympic Committee. The package is intended to help teachers and students prepare for athlete engagement through background information, age-appropriate interview prompts and connections between athletes' experiences and the Olympic values. The resource will provide a more structured approach for schools to request and prepare for visits while helping the DOC and Olympic Academy deliver consistent and meaningful athlete-centered educational activities. Sep 2	Supported the delivery of the online OVEP Back-to-School Refresher Meeting, which brought together eight participants from schools, the Sports Division and sport, along with the three-member organizing team. The session reconnected participants with OVEP, shared practical approaches for integrating Olympic values into classrooms and introduced available educational resources. Following the meeting, I consolidated the attendance and resource-request lists and followed up with capacity officer regarding suitable approved photographs of the Dominican athletes featured in the Learning Pack. Four participants requested digital copies, while two requested printed copies. Local sports methodology officer circulated the refresher presentation and an introductory worksheet, advised participants that the complete Learning	Completed

Pack is expected within two weeks, and invited teachers to share classroom experiences, photographs and videos. She also invited interested participants to contribute to a working group for the development of a Youth Olympic Games Unit for students in Dominica.

- Sep 4
- Following the request for specialist guidance, Emilio Posadas consulted with Jimena Saldaña and Nicole Hoevertsz and facilitated contact with María Loreto González, Julia Garisoain and the supporting team. I shared the draft Dominica Olympic Committee Safeguarding Policy and clarified that the requested support is primarily to review its alignment with international safeguarding and Safe Sport good practices and provide recommendations before the document is presented for consideration and approval. María Loreto Gonzalez confirmed her willingness to collaborate and proposed an initial meeting to gain a broader understanding of the work completed and the local context. She offered availability on Tuesday between 10:30 a.m, Chile time. I confirmed my availability for 10:30 a.m. and advised that the availability of the other participants would be confirmed on Monday.

WEEKLY PROGRESS TREND (ALL INITIATIVES)

THIS WEEK'S OBJECTIVES

- 1
- Strengthen continued engagement with OVEP participants through Back-to-School Refresher Meeting, provide teachers with practical resources for classroom implementation, and develop an athlete interview package to support schools interested in requesting educational visits from the Dominica Olympic Committee.

Expected result — Participating teachers receive OVEP worksheet as a back to school activity and clear opportunities for continued involvement, while a structured athlete interview and school-visit package is developed to connect students with Dominican athletes and explore Olympic values through their experiences.

Success indicator — OVEP Back-to-School Refresher Meeting gains interest in learning pack. Presentation and introductory Learning Pack worksheet circulated. requests for hard copies documented Teachers invited to share classroom experiences, photographs and videos. Participants invited to contribute to the development of a Youth Olympic Games Unit.

- 2
- Advance the draft Dominica Olympic Committee Safeguarding Policy through external technical review, confirm its alignment with international safeguarding and Safe Sport good practices, and identify the revisions required before presenting it to the DOC for consideration and approval.

Expected result — A consultation is coordinated with safeguarding specialists, expert feedback is obtained on the draft policy, and clear recommendations are identified to strengthen the document and guide its finalization within the Dominican context.

Success indicator — Draft Safeguarding Policy shared with the identified specialists. Scope and purpose of the requested review clearly communicated. External technical support confirmed. Consultation date and time coordinated with stakeholders.

- 3 Continue supporting the Local Sport Methodology Officer in independently coordinating federation engagement, research and documentation while providing targeted technical assistance to national federations and coaches based on identified needs, upcoming competitions and direct requests for support.

Expected result — The Local Sport Methodologist progresses federation follow-up and documentation through a clearly structured work plan, while Athletics, Cycling and Volleyball receive targeted support in areas including annual training plans, athlete development pathways, qualification research, federation databases, operational calendars, selection criteria and competition preparation.

Success indicator — Priority federation-support actions identified for the reporting period. Technical meetings scheduled with coaches in targeted federations Known participation plans documented Federation databases, athlete pathways, calendars, selection criteria and communication documents monitored and updated as information becomes available. Ongoing follow-up identified for federation meetings, CAC Games reviews and Panam Sports Coaching Course participants.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The OVEP Back-to-School Refresher re-engaged eight participating teachers and sport leaders, supported by three organizers. The presentation and worksheet were shared; four requested digital and two requested hard copies. Participants were invited to share classroom experiences and help develop a Youth Olympic Games Unit. Work began on an athlete interview and school-visit package. The draft DOC Safeguarding Policy was shared for external review after Emilio Posadas facilitated specialist support; a consultation was tentatively scheduled for Tuesday with María Loreto González. I reviewed Staci Hill's progress and helped prioritize federation documentation, qualification research, CAC follow-up and Coaching Course support. Coach Godwin Dorsette requested help with 2026–2027 annual training plans, and a meeting was set for Monday. Volleyball and Cycling follow-up continues. Although Volleyball withdrew from the Pan American Cup, its documentation work remains relevant. Federation response times and scheduling were the main challenges. Tania supported federation communication. The November Ministry meeting remains unconfirmed, while website work is expected to advance in September.
