4 total engagements this week, across 2 stakeholder types.

WEEKLY PROGRESS TREND (ALL INITIATIVES)

THIS WEEK'S OBJECTIVES

- 1 Initiate direct coordination with the newly appointed local Sports Methodologist to connect the technical work developed to date with field implementation in Belize.

Expected result — Establish a working relationship that allows priorities, federation follow-up and technical responsibilities to be coordinated between remote and local implementation.

Success indicator — Local methodologist officially active and first working session arranged to review completed work, align priorities and define the coordination approach for the next phase.
- 2 Monitor Belize's participation in the Caribbean Junior Road Championships and identify performance information relevant to future athlete development.

Expected result — Use current competition evidence to identify athletes showing potential and begin considering how their development can be supported beyond individual competition results.

Success indicator — Competition results reviewed and initial discussion initiated with BOCGA on the need to develop structured plans for athletes currently demonstrating competitive potential.
- 3 Continue professional development through the Panam Sports Coach Certificate 1 and contribute to technical exchange within the Panam Sports Methodologists network.

Expected result — Strengthen technical knowledge while maintaining practical cooperation with other methodologists on specific athlete and program-development needs

Success indicator — Second Coach Certificate session completed and technical exchange maintained within the Methodologists network.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This week marked the beginning of a new implementation stage. With the local Sports Methodologist officially active in Belize, direct coordination was initiated to connect the methodological work already developed with federation-level follow-up in the country.

At the same time, monitoring of the Caribbean Junior Road Championships provided relevant performance evidence and opened an initial discussion with BOCGA on the need to move from identifying competitive potential toward developing structured pathways for athletes demonstrating progression.

Technical capacity development also continued through the Panam Sports Coach Certificate 1, while technical exchange within the Methodologists network remained active.

INITIATIVE PROGRESS

Federation Performance Planning and Technical Coordination

● In Progress

STRATEGIC

8/10

No change vs. last week

A key implementation step was reached with the local Sports Methodologist officially beginning his role. Direct coordination was initiated to review the methodology and work completed to date, align priorities and prepare the connection between strategic direction and federation-level field work in Belize.

Strategic Competition Planning and Preparation Support

● In Progress

HIGH PERFORMANCE

7/10

No change vs. last week

Monitoring of the Caribbean Junior Road Championships provided new performance information for Belize cycling. The results opened a discussion with BOCGA on moving from recognition of competitive potential toward structured development plans and opportunities for athletes showing progression.

PANAM SPORTS SUPPORT NEEDED

Continued technical coordination will be valuable as the local methodologist begins field implementation, helping maintain alignment between federation follow-up, athlete-development priorities and the methodological framework being developed for Belize.

CHALLENGES

● High priority

● In Progress

COORDINATION

With the local Sports Methodologist now active in Belize, the immediate challenge is to establish an effective coordination mechanism connecting field information and federation follow-up with the methodological and strategic work already developed.

Action — Define priorities, information flow, federation follow-up responsibilities and a regular working mechanism with the local methodologist.

● Medium priority

● In Progress

TECHNICAL

Recent cycling results identified athletes demonstrating competitive potential, creating the need to move from event-based monitoring toward clearer individual development pathways and support priorities.

Action — Review relevant athlete profiles and performance information to identify where structured development planning and specific support opportunities should be considered.

NEXT WEEK FOCUS

Conduct the first working session with the local Sports Methodologist, align immediate priorities and federation follow-up, continue developing the methodological framework, and begin translating recent competition evidence into clearer athlete-development priorities and technical actions.
