WEEKLY PROGRESS TREND (ALL INITIATIVES)

THIS WEEK'S OBJECTIVES

1. Complete the local review of the Grades 3–5 teacher resource, add approved athlete images, and submit it to Olympic Values Education Program experts for final review before distribution to teachers.

   Expected result — Selected athlete images to be added to the resource by local sport methodogogist, reviewed and submitted to Roxane Arthigal, Silvia Dalotto and Xenia Kourgouzova for final review guidance on acknowledgements, credits, logo use, disclaimers before distribution to teachers.

   Success indicator — Support Staci Hill in final revision of resource through coordination with Tania Burnett other DOC staff to add approved images of athletes The resource submitted for final review by OVEP experts with request for feedback

2. Obtain technical advice on the draft DOC Safeguarding Policy and initiate long list of experts in Dominica with expertise to contribute to safeguarding policy implementation

   Expected result — Continue the external review with Maria Loreto Gonzalez and establish a working directory for legal, clinical psychology and counselling contacts.

   Success indicator — Facilitate safeguarding consultation with María Loreto González and Tania Burnett Receive feedback to inform modifications and further steps Prepare a directory document and assign Staci research on potential contacts. Check in with local safeguarding expect Jemma Azille regarding professionals in her network that can be considered for a potential safe sport office in Dominica Create a working document to develop a referral directory of lawyers and clinical psychologists in Dominica Develop a plan for further steps together with Maria Loreto Gonzalez and Tania Burnett

3. Support Local Sport Methodologist Staci Hill's National Olympic Academy (NOA), Panam Sports Coaching Course, OVEP teacher engagement and federation work, while following up on DOC institutional priorities.

   Expected result — Establish clear next steps for NOA governance and activities; advance plans for Coaching Course and OVEP participant engagement, Cycling coordination and the September 21 Volleyball Association meeting; and support alignment between DOC planning and CANOC priorities.

   Success indicator — On September 14, reviewed with Staci the September 10 NOA Executive minutes, her September 7–11 work summary and her September 14–18 work plan. Identified NOA follow-up on governance-document approval requirements, social media planning, Executive group communication, involvement in OVEP and Youth Olympic Games resources, proposed athlete and Executive features, and the Olympic Museum and Studies Center walkthrough and phased budget. Reviewed Road Cycling qualification research, Cycling World Championships coordination, the proposed Coaching Course participant check-in and OVEP engagement. Confirmed NOA and OVEP follow-up, Cycling coordination and preparation for the September 21 Volleyball meeting as priorities for the week. Shared with Tania a proposal to align DOC planning with the CANOC MoUs and requested the CANOC Strategic Plan for the DOC Strategic Planning Team. Clarified the purpose and scope of the CANOC research, which Staci will support. Assigned Staci to facilitate CANOC survey responses and research lawyers and clinical psychologists for the safeguarding referral directory.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This week focused on the review the draft DOC Safeguarding Policy with María Loreto González and and starting a directory of local legal and clinical contacts.

We coordinated the local review of the Grades 3–5 OVEP teacher resource and submitted it to OVEP experts for guidance; distribution awaits their feedback. Reviewed Staci Hill's work plan as well as discussed NOA minutes, including governance documents, communications, OVEP and Youth Olympic Games resources, and museum planning. I supported the local sport methodlogist in proposed coaching course participant check-ins, Cycling World Championships coordination, and preparation for the September 21 Volleyball meeting. Tania reported that website work is scheduled to begin October 1 and the DOC strategic planning recommendations document has been circulated; the government meeting remains pending for November. We requested the CANOC Strategic Plan through Tania. Key outstanding items that will carry into next week include final safeguarding policy and OVEP resource reviews, and ongoing tarteted technilca and institutional support as well as government coordination follow up.
