EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This week, Secretary General Mr. Dennis MacDonald, Mike Nahar, and I held a progress meeting. It was very productive as we discussed the project's main challenges and, above all, our plans for the next three months as the project nears its conclusion. We visited a talent academy, and this provided important input for the talent identification pilot program we're working on. Finally, the legacy initiative—the sports development plan—began to take shape.
