WEEKLY PROGRESS TREND (ALL INITIATIVES)

THIS WEEK'S OBJECTIVES

1. 1) Pilot project: On 12 October, a meeting was held with Mike Nahar and the Gender Commission to finalise preparations for the 27 November activity.

   Expected result — Arrange the schedule and activities so that the pilot can be implemented on 27 November.

   Success indicator — Agreement to ensure the participation of 500 girls and boys in the pilot program.

2. 2- Prepare documents and share them with Mr. Dennis Mac Donald to continue making progress on creating processes within the SOC.

   Expected result — Receive feedback from the SOC on the five forms for the federations preparing for the 2027 Pan American Games in Lima.

   Success indicator — Five improved forms for implementation with national federations by sport category: Time and Scoring, Racket Sports, Combat Sports, Team Sports, and Precision Sports.

3. Legacy Document; this document is intended to provide recommendations for the continued implementation of each of the proposed initiatives.

   Expected result — Actions for each of the initiatives to be further developed in 2027.

   Success indicator — A draft document; 50% complete

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This week, while working remotely, I have made progress on incorporating the recommendations into the planning templates for the federations of the 2027 Pan American Games in Lima. I have prepared the requested report for the Executive Committee and the meeting on Wednesday, October 21. We continue to make progress on implementing the pilot program for identifying and developing athletic talent in Suriname. Finally, I am following up on the coaches' participation in the Panam Sports course.
